HUSBAND - Abraham Mixon-147

The last time I find Abraham is in the 1850 MS. Census. He is listed with Elizabeth Joyce Mixon and several other Mixons also a number of Harrison children. They were too old to be the children of Malakiah and Mary Harrison Mixon so they may have been her sisters and brothers. We do not know what became of Malakiah and Mary. They just disappear. Perhaps they became sick and died so that the grandparents had to take the Harrison family into their home.

WIFE - Elizabeth Joyce-148

March 5, 1994-What an exciting day! While Don & I were working on my DAR Files, Don noticed a name in the 1860 MS. Jackson County Census. It was in the house next door to the young Abraham (b. Lawrence Co., MS.) There was our Elizabeth Joyce Mixon! She stated her age as 82 and her birthplace as South Carolina! It was such a joy to find her. She was last found in the 1850 MS. Jackson County Census with Abraham-the elder-and the Harrison children. What became of Malakiah and Mary Mixon, we do not know. The children must have been brothers and sisters of Mary Harrison Mixon, as they are too old to have been those of Malakiah and Mary. There is some variation in the Census as to the exact age of Elizabeth Joyce Mixon. At least we have it very close. So happy to know too, that she was definitely born in S. Carolina. We had no proof of this before.

✓ HUSBAND - Abraham Mixon-142

Abraham was a Private in Co.A, 3rd Regiment, Ms. Infantry. His wife, Lucy Parker Mixon, received a pension from the St. of Ala. We have been unable to locate his burial place as this date, 1993.

!On February 24, 1994, Don and I were doing some last bits of research for the DAR at the Pensacola Regional Library. I had decided to look at Aaron Parker in the 1850 MS. Jackson Co. Census to see if I could find Abraham and Lucy Parker Mixon because I knew that they were there but they were not in the Index of the Census. Sure enough, on the microfilm, page 17 we found Abraham, Lucy, Elizabeth age 3 and Aaron age 1. The old Abraham is found on pg. 20 of the microfilm of Jackson Co.,MS. Because I knew that the young Abraham did not die until 1864 in the Battle of Atlanta, I decided to look at the other Jackson Co. entries. There was an Ellen Parker. It found that Elender Parker was the Ellen (Aaron Parker had died since the 1850 MS. Census) Ellen is on the page with Abraham & Lucy. She is in household #162, Abraham is #165 and to our amazement, Elizabeth Joyce Mixon is household #166-right next door to her grandson Abraham. She gives her age as 82 born in S.C. There is no one else in her household listed.

!There may have been another child whose name could have been Mallard. This Mallard m. one Lucy Ellen Reeves who was known as 'Sissy'. She was born 3 March 1855, she died 12 Jan. 1914. I hope to find some confirmation.

WIFE - Lucy Parker-143

! he was not in the Index of the 1860 MS. Census either I decided to look at the other Jackson Co. entries. There was an Ellen Parker. I decided to check it out. Sure enough, Elender Parker was the Ellen (Aaron Parker had died since the 1850 MS.Census) Ellen is on the page with Abraham & Lucy. She is in household #162, Abraham is #165 and to our amazement, Elizabeth Joyce Mixon is household #166-rt. next door! She gives her age as 82, born S.C. CHILD 1 - Elizabeth (Betsy) Mixon-693

CHILD 2 - Aaron A. Mixon-140

There seems to be some question as to the dates of Elizabeth (Betsy) Mixon and Aaron A. Mixon births. In the census and other sources of information, there is a two year difference in their births. However, on Aaron A. Mixon's gravemarker, his date of birth is listed as 1847. There was definitely a two year difference in their births but I'm uncertain about it. Perhaps Betsy was born in 1845 rather than 1847.

The book, "The Mixson-Mixon Family," recorded Malakiah Mixon to have married one Elizabeth, last name unknown. We journeyed to Lawrence Co., Ms. in 1993 and obtained a certified copy of Malakiah Mixon's marriage to one Mary Harrison. She was the daughter of Jeremiah Harrison and the date of the marriage was 24 July, 1927. The Elizabeth could have been a mistake or another marriage, but we have not found any evidence of said Elizabeth.

shoemaker and was independent. Zuleka said she had heard our grandfather Harris say she had seen grandfather Micha Mixon's sword and some buckles he used when he was in the Revolutionary War.

She told me that my great grandparents, the old Jeremiah and Anna Belk home was an old time two story house built out of the hearts of timbers (hewn logs, we called them) he had built for himself. His negro slave quarters were down back of it so Zuleka said. (I remember seeing the house once since my father and mother died).

Now this was the same home you see of great great grandparents, Jeremiah and Anna Belk, and they were my great grandparents on my father's side. (Wesley Alexander was son of Massey Belk Alexander and she was the daughter of Jeremiah and Anna Mixon Belk). Mrs. DuBose told me that Micha Mixon's lands were in the Darlington District. Her husband also told me the same thing.

The old Jeremiah Belk house burned about six or seven years ago and it would be a good house now if it had not burned. There is an old cemetery out there and Mr. and Mrs. DuBose said they believed all of Jeremiah Belk's family were buried out there. I am going to go out there soon as Willie can take me and see if I can find some slabs to any of their graves. They also told me they were of Methodist denomination and I am going to see if I can find any records about them at Old Cypress Methodist Church, the nearest Methodist Church to them.

Mrs. DuBose and myself hope you will visit us this summer and will take you to all these old family spots of interest to us as well as to yourself. I am, with much love,

Your cousin,

(s) Mary Mixon

CHAPTER VIII

JESSE MIXON

702 JESSE MIXON, JOHN MIXON IV (6), JOHN MIXON III (3), JOHN MIXON II (2), JOHN MIXON I (1)

Jesse Mixon, s. of John Mixon, IV and his wife, was b. probably in South Carolina, ca. 1744, d. in Yazoo County, Miss., ca. 1832, listed in the 1830 census for Yazoo County as 80-90 years of age, and his wife 70-80 years of age. His name appears first in South Carolina records as being one of the signers and members of Capt. Robert Lide's Company of Volunteers, organized Oct. 9, 1775. Since he had not asked for pay for his services from S.C., and not mentioned in the 1790 census of that State, it was thought at first he had died or was killed in the war. Later records, however, show he had received a small land grant in 1785 in Beaufort District located on Matthews Bluff, near Savannah River. He had moved before 1790 to Effingham County, Ga., where further records are found indicating he had received more land grants in that County and in that part which was later cut off into Bulloch County. He had married at least twice, name of first wife unknown - she had died before 1788 at which time he had married a widow, Elizabeth, who had some children by a former marriage, but bore some two or more children by Jesse. He was a planter and a stock raiser, making a specialty of raising and training race horses. County records of Effingham County indicate he was Administrator of the Estate of Henry Webb, also estate of Rachel Shorter, and in Bulloch County, the administrator of estate of John Cook. Mr. and Mrs. Mixon and four or more of his children, with their families, were in Mississippi Territory before Dec. 27, 1811.

On Sept. 24, 1827, he deeded some slaves to two sons, Cornelius Lofton Mixson and John (Jehu) Mixson. He probably had one or more daughters by his first wife, however they have not been identified. Sons by his first wife, evidently are:

1770 Elijah Mixon - b. ca. 1774

*1771 William Mixon - b. ca. 1776

*1772 Vinson Mixon - b. ca. 1778

1773 Jesse Mixon, Jr. - b. ca. 1780

The 1805 Land Lottery of Georgia shows following Mixons in Bulloch County participating: Jesse Mixon, Jesse Mixon, Jr., Elijah Mixon and Vinson Mixon. William Mixon had married and was living in another county. No further records have been found of Elijah Mixon. He probably had died before 1820, the first census of Georgia does not list him, nor does the 1820 census of Mississippi.

Jesse Mixon had by his second marriage, the following children:

*1774 Cornelius Lofton Mixon - b. 1790

*1775 John Jehu Mixon - b. 1792

1776 Rachel Mixon - b. 1794, m. Thomas Applewhite in Marion County, Miss., July 6, 1816

1777 Mary Mixon - b. 1796, m. Samuel Miles in Marion County, Miss., Aug. 11, 1818

William Mixon, s. of Jesse Mixon, was b. ca. 1776 in South Carolina, d. in Lawrence County, Miss. before 1850. About 1800 he m. Mary Eleanor Joyce, daughter of James Joyce of Barnwell District, S.C. He was a resident of Tattnall County, Ga. before 1809, at which time he was given a land grant of 285 acres and another grant of 200 acres in 1819. This was after the family had moved to Mississippi and shown there in 1816 census with one son under 21, and 8 females besides his wife. From the 1830 and other censuses, it is ascertained that besides several daughters, there were three sons within the following age groups:

Son - Age 20 - 30
Son - Age 10 - 15
Son - Age 5- 10

None of these have been positively identified.

1772 VINSON MIXON, JESSE MIXON, JOHN MIXON IV (6), JOHN MIXON III (3), JOHN MIXON II (2), JOHN MIXON I (1)

Vinson Mixon, s. of Jesse Mixon and wife, was b. ca. 1778 in South Carolina. He participated in the 1805 Georgia Land Lottery, and on Monday, January 28, 1811, he, with his wife and six children, were among a number of people granted passports by the Governor of Georgia to pass through the Indian Nations.

He is shown in the 1816 census of Marion County, Miss., with his wife and six children, with three sons and three daughters. He was a juror in Marion County, 1819, but is not shown in the 1820 or subsequent censuses of Miss. or Ga. It is not known what happened to him and his family - they could have gone to another state, or could have died and his children scattered, some could have returned to Georgia. Some of his children (and it could have been one or more sons) were born, evidently, before 1800, as he had his six children at the time of his passport in Jan., 1811. They could have moved to Texas, where no complete census was had before 1850.

1774 CORNELIUS LOFTON MIXON, JESSE MIXON (702), JOHN MIXON IV (6), JOHN MIXON III (3), JOHN MIXON II (2), JOHN MIXON I (1)

Cornelius Lofton Mixon, s. of Jesse and Elizabeth Mixon, was b. in Effingham County, Ga., 1790, d. in Perry County, Miss. after 1840. Family records state that he was m. to Sara (Sally) Kirkland, and evidently he married young, as he is shown in the 1816 census in Marion County, Miss. with three sons and three daughters. There could have been, however, one or two sets of twins in the family. He was one of the signers petitioning Congress to grant Miss. statehood in Dec., 1811. In the War of 1812 he served in the 13th Miss. Militia under command of Col. Geo. H. Nixon. From family records and from census records, there were 16 children in this family, the first two were born in Georgia, the rest in Miss.:

John Jehu Mixon, s. of Jesse and Elizabeth Mixon, was b. in Effingham County, Ga. in 1792, d. Oct. 3, 1855 from an accident that happened to him at his mill. He migrated to Miss. Territory with his parents about 1810 and was one of the signers of a Petition to Congress asking for statehood for Miss. under date of Dec. 27, 1811. He was a soldier in the War of 1812, being with the 13th Miss. Regiment commanded by Col. George H. Nixon. He volunteered to take the place of his older brother, Cornelius, who had a large family. On Aug. 1, 1822, he m. Rebecca Slade in Marion County, Miss. Cornelius was his bondsman at his wedding. He received a bounty grant of 160 a. of land for his services in the War of 1812, which was located on Denham Creek. Here he settled, farmed, and built a mill on the creek, grinding wheat as well as corn, also had a cotton gin in connection with his mill. He served as jailor for some years at the Old Augusta jail, and it was during that time when James Copeland, a notorious criminal, was confined therein. On night while carrying him his supper, Copeland was waiting to hit Mr. Mixon over the head with a plank, but missed and hit his foot instead, breaking it. Rebecca took her shoe and hit Copeland over the head, but he escaped, was later recaptured and hanged from a tree near the old jail. Before his death, Mr. Mixon sold his bounty grant to pay off his debts. He had applied for another grant which was given his widow after his death. Mr. and Mrs. Mixon had 11 children, 8 of them sons, all 8 sons went to the Confederate Army and only three returned home. Their children:

Dear Mrs. Strickland:

I have enjoyed, appreciated and used your work a great deal.
Your books are a real service to humanity.

I'm sure you will not mind if I point out a few "areas" which you might want to check into and make corrections for some of them in your next issue(s):

1. Who Married Whom Perry County, Mississippi, - 1987

Page 87: Jesse Benjamin Mixon b 1813. His wife was Nancy Donald b25-Aug-1824. They married 17-
May-1841.

Their daughter, Hester Mixon, (31-Jul-1842 -
6-Aug-1927) married in 1866
(Jones County, MS) my great grandfather,
Thomas Jefferson Harrell (12-Mar-1841 GA - 07-Feb-1889). Both are buried at Providence Church Cemetery, Forrest County, MS.

May Ann Mixon b 1856 married E. A. White b 1843.

Page 105: Quick, Thomas C. GA 1822 married Frances
Woodward Harrell on 31-Jul-1842 in Upson
County, Georgia as his second wife. (Frances Woodward Harrell was the mother of Thomas Jefferson Harrell mentioned above).

Thomas Jefferson Harrell is also mentioned on page 58 of Who Married Whom in Jones County, MS. And, is the same family you have listed on page 59 as Jefferson Harrold with wife Esther.

* This is an assumption, but I believe that on page 49, Green, Sapps b 1824 m Elizabeth 1844,
I believe that this is the same person as
Green L. "Jake" Sapp that is listed on page
112. The wife and some of the children appear to be the same.

2. Who Married Whom Covington County, Mississippi - 1991:

- * Page 79: Isaac M. Jones m 1873 Nancy Ranes 1854. His correct name was "Ira M. Jones." These are the parents of my dad's mother. Now, their children.
- * Milly is "Cornelia "Neely" Jones" b10-Mar-1874. d. 2-Aug-1940. Buried Station Creek Cemetery, Covington County, MS. She was married to Thomas Warren Wade in 1896. He was born 2-May-1876 in Jones County, MS., died 22-Mar-1958 and is buried at Station Creek Cemetery, Covington County, MS.
- * Nancy should be "Nancy Josephine Jones" b 19-Mar-1876 in Collins, Covington County, MS., died 29-Nov-1926 and is buried at Station Creek Cemetery, Covington County, MS. Nancy Josephine Jones was my dad's mother, and she married Wiley Knight on 3-Apr-1898. Wiley Knight b 2-Sep-1877 Covington County, MS., died 24-Nov-1962 at Tylertown, Walthall County, MS. Buried at Tylertown Cemetery.
- * Page 131 - you show that Sarah Phebe (Hargrove) SC1764 (married John Pickering) as a child of James Timothy Pickering AL1813 and Katheine Aultman. I'm no authority on the Pickering family, but there seems to be an error here.
- * Also on page 131, you show under John Benj. Pickering, his daughter Mary b 1872 married 1) Joseph Harrell and 2. Grissie Guthrie. The correct name for "Grissie Guthrie" is "Eugene F. "Gus" Guthrie 22-Dec-1874 - 11-Jun-1931. Buried Bullock Cemetery, Sanford, Covington County, MS. (Joseph Harrell was my mother's uncle, thus my interest).
- * Page 138, you show Ranes, Nancy b 1820 as "Mother-Law of Isaac M. Jones 1880." Nancy Ranes was the wife of Ira M. Jones mentioned earlier. My dad's grandparents.
- * Page 146, David C. Rogers AL1840 1868 Ellen Robertson 1843. Their son, Columbus W. Rogers, b 1869, married on 2-Nov-1890 in Jones County, MS., Viola B. Harrell b. ca. 1871. (She was the sister to Joseph Harrell mentioned above).
- * Page 160: Speed, Benjamin Franklin 1834 m

1858 Levenia Pickering 1839.

You show that Ben Franklin 1863 married Martha Marshall Norrell. Her correct name was "Martha Missouri Harrell" (daughter of Thomas Jefferson Harrell). Their daughter was my mother, Lavinia Speed Knight.

3. WHO MARRIED WHOM JONES COUNTY, MS. 1986

* Page 59: Harrold, Jefferson GA1842 m 1866 Esther 1843.

This should be: Thomas Jefferson Harrell GA1841 married 1866 Hester Mixon GA1842.

- daughter Martha born 10-Aug-1864
- son Joseph born 08-Oct-1868
- daughter Viola B. born ca. 1871
- son Thomas J. born 27-Oct-1872

4. Records of Perry County, Mississippi Cemetery Records Volume Three 1980:

Page 24: RUNNELS, Thomas Nathaniel and Rozella. It should be "Thomas Nathaniel FORD" and Rozella Runnels.

Page 25: RUNNELS, you show "Corena, daughter of H.C.J. and T. E. Runnels." This should be R. E. Runnels (for Rhoda E. Odom Runnels).

5. Who Married Whom Wayne County, Mississippi - 1987:

Page 159: Runnels, Isham AL1831 1854 2. Elvira E. Finley 1832. I believe that the name should be "Isom" rather than "Isham."

Under these names, you show: Nancy SC1805
Siney AL1835
Jane AL1836
Martin AL1837 and then
list a number of children born beginning in 1853.

- * Nancy SC1805 is the MOTHER of Isham (Isom) Runnels. Her name is Mrs. Nancy Craker.
- * Siney is Sina Lucinda Runnels b 1835 m 1856 Daniel Lankford 1835.
- * Jane is Pernella Jane Runnels b 1836
- * Martin is Martin VanBuren Runnels b 1837.

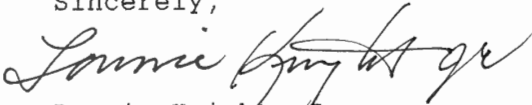

Siney, Jane and Martin are siblings of Isham (Isom) Runnels and are not his children.

My word, I guess you will be glad that this is OVER. I'm sorry to be such a pain, but, when I notice something, I put it on my computer for later use. Now, everything comes at one time. Sorry about that.

If I can help you in any way, do let me know.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Lonnie Knight, Jr.".
